Article 1 - Scope of application of the general terms and conditions of sale

These general terms and conditions automatically govern all sales of stays made on the website www.juracampingdelile.fr. They form an integral part of any contract concluded between the campsite and its customers. Each customer acknowledges having read these general terms and conditions prior to booking a stay, for themselves and any other person participating in the stay. In accordance with the law in force, these general terms and conditions are made available to all customers for information purposes prior to the conclusion of any contract for the sale of stays. They can also be obtained by sending a written request to the establishment's head office.

Article 2 - Booking conditions

The rental is personal; it is forbidden to sublet or transfer the pitch to a third party. The booking only becomes effective with the agreement of the campsite, after receipt of the deposit and after acceptance of the general terms and conditions of sale when booking online. The island campsite offers family-oriented stays in the traditional sense, and the accommodation is specially designed for this purpose. The island campsite reserves the right to refuse any reservation that would be contrary to this principle or that would seek to circumvent it. Minors must be accompanied by their parents or legal guardians.

2.1 Camping pitch

The basic package includes a pitch for a tent, caravan, or motorhome for 1 or 2 people, access to sanitary facilities, and reception facilities.

2.2 Rental

Rental accommodation is fully equipped with furniture, crockery, pillows, and duvets. The basic package is for 2 to 5 people, depending on the type of rental. As stated on our website, each accommodation or camping pitch is designed for a specific number of people. For safety and insurance reasons, the maximum number of occupants cannot be exceeded. Furthermore, a baby is considered as a person in their own right. Camping de l'Île reserves the right to refuse access to the campsite to groups or families arriving with a number of participants exceeding the capacity of the rented accommodation. Please remember to bring your own sheets, fitted sheets, and pillowcases. Animals (dogs, cats, rabbits, etc.) are strictly prohibited in the rentals, as well as outside and in cars. We reserve the right to refuse access to the rental to families arriving with an animal.

2.3 Group Reservations

Any reservation of more than 3 accommodations by the same individual or by different individuals who know each other and are traveling together for the same reasons on the same dates is considered a group. Our accommodations are intended exclusively for individual customers. For all group reservation requests, you must contact us by phone, email, or via our Contact Us section. We reserve the right to review the reservation request before accepting or refusing it.

2.4 Prices and payment

The price of stays is indicated in euros, including VAT. Customers should note that the price includes tourist tax. For camping pitch reservations: All rentals are non-transferable. The rental only becomes effective with our agreement and after receipt of the deposit (50%). For rental reservations: All rentals are non-transferable. The rental only becomes effective with our agreement and after receipt of the deposit (50%). For any unreported delay, the rental/pitch becomes available 6 hours after the arrival date mentioned on the booking contract. After this period, and in the absence of a written message, the booking will be canceled and the deposit will be retained by the campsite management.

2.5 Changes to reservations

No reduction will be made in the event of late arrival or early departure.

2.6 Cancellation/Changes

1. Changes to your reservation

Customers may request changes to their stay (campsite, date, and/or type of accommodation) by sending a written request to the campsite (by mail or email), subject to availability and feasibility. No postponements will be accepted for the following season. Guests are advised that in the event of a change to their stay, they will not be able to benefit from any promotions offered after their initial booking, as the date of the first booking will be taken as proof. If no changes are made, guests must either stay under the initial booking conditions or cancel their booking.

- Any request to extend the length of your stay will be made subject to availability and current rates.
- Any request to shorten the length of your stay is considered a partial cancellation and will be subject to the terms and conditions for cancellation and interruption of stay.

If we do not receive a message from you indicating a postponement of your arrival date, the accommodation may be made available for sale again 24 hours after the arrival date mentioned in the contract, and you will therefore lose the benefit of your reservation.

2. Unused services

Any stay that is interrupted or shortened (late arrival, early departure) due to your own actions will not be eligible for a refund, regardless of the reason given.

3. Cancellation by Camping de l'île

In the event of cancellation by Camping de l'île, except in cases of force majeure, the stay will be fully refunded. However, this cancellation will not give rise to the payment of damages.

4. Cancellation by the camper

Any reservation not paid for in accordance with the general terms and conditions of sale will be canceled. For any cancellation notified and received at least 30 days before the start date of the stay, the deposit will be refunded.

2.7 Cancellation

The legal provisions relating to the right of cancellation in the case of distance selling provided for in the Consumer Code do not apply to tourist services (Article L.121-20-4 of the Consumer Code). Therefore, for any booking of a stay at the campsite, the customer does not have the right to cancel.

Article 4 - Liability

The Campsite declines all responsibility for damage to campers' and caravanners' equipment caused by their own actions; civil liability insurance for your equipment is mandatory. It is the camper's responsibility to take out insurance: campers are responsible for looking after their personal belongings (bicycles, etc.). The campsite declines all responsibility in the event of an incident falling under the civil liability of the camper.

All customers must comply with the provisions of the internal regulations. Each tenant is responsible for any disturbances or nuisances caused by people staying with them or visiting them.

Responsibility of the contractual customer

The contractual customer for the accommodation or pitch (name indicated on the booking form) undertakes to use, and to ensure that the persons accompanying them use, the park's equipment and facilities in accordance with their normal purpose and use. In particular, they undertake to leave their accommodation or pitch in good condition when they leave at the end of their stay. Any damage to the premises, loss or destruction of the furnishings in the mobile homes or public buildings of the park shall automatically render the perpetrator liable. The contractual customer for accommodation or a pitch shall be held personally liable for any damage, loss, deterioration, disturbance or nuisance caused by persons staying with them or visiting them. The customer who has contracted the accommodation or pitch acknowledges that they have read the campsite's internal rules and regulations and undertakes to comply with them and to ensure that the persons accompanying them or visiting them also comply with them. If a customer disturbs or causes nuisance to other customers or damages the communal facilities, the campsite reserves the right to terminate their stay immediately without compensation and without prejudice to any claims for compensation that the campsite and third parties may assert against them.

The same would apply if the campsite were to find that the accommodation was being used improperly (number of occupants exceeding the authorized capacity of the rental). The customer certifies that he/she has a civil liability insurance policy with his/her insurer covering damage caused to rented or entrusted property (provide certificate).

Campsite liability

Under no circumstances does the campsite assume any obligation to safeguard personal effects and objects within the park.

The campsite's liability, beyond its legal responsibility, cannot be invoked in the event of:

- theft, loss, damage, or deterioration of personal effects of any kind, during or following a stay
- breakdown or failure of technical equipment, breakdown or permanent or temporary closure of certain campsite facilities when these are beyond its control and related to cases of force majeure.
- specific measures taken by the campsite management to restrict access to certain facilities, including sanitary facilities, when these are necessary to comply with safety standards or periodic maintenance work.
